China of Charm

THE finest products of the potter's art have always met at Ovington's. For seventy years Ovington's has been recognized by New Yorkers as the china shop where charming sets were always to be had at very moderate prices.

1124—Frequently finished with a rich yellow background and decorated with white Hawthorne blossoms, this china tea set is very unusual. All handles are finished with gold. The set consists of 12 pieces, 6 cups and saucers, 6 plates and one chop or salad plate. Price, $125.00.

1125—That popular imitation—ice cream—when served upon this china ice cream set decorated about the border with a dark blue band overlaid with pink roses and anthers and in the center with the same colored flowers. Gold handles. Set consists of six plates and one server. Price, $10.00.

1126—This elegant piece individual breakfast set in white china decorated with a pink band and topped with a band of blue forget-me-nots. Resistant to heat and frost. Price, $20.00.

Every once in a while we receive requests for copies of the Apple Pie advertisement printed in New York newspapers four years ago, which shows that people will remember a place by its advertising.

Apple Pie is still a favorite with our guests. We probably serve more Apple Pie than any other hotel in the world. It is probably better Apple Pie than is served anywhere.

However, all dishes served at the Belleclaire have the same degree of merit as Apple Pie.

Visit our dining rooms as often as you can and be served with meals that will make you think life is very rosy indeed.

Does anything contribute more to one's happiness than a good meal well cooked and nicely served?
